

Downstate New York Diasporans Firearm Club

A Chapter of National African American Gun Association

CODE OF CONDUCT

Instructions: Please review all information thoroughly, sign, date, and return the form to us.

MANDATORY: Ethical Code of Conduct

1. This is a private organization and all potential members must apply and can be declined at the discretion of the Chapter President.
2. All chapters must have a moral and ethical code of conduct toward all members and the public.
3. No violence toward any members or the public will be tolerated under any circumstance.
4. No sexual harassment toward any members or the public will be tolerated under any circumstance.
5. No members with a record of a “violent felony” will be allowed to become members of NAAGA.
6. No alcohol consumption before or during a meeting will be tolerated under any circumstance at a NAAGA/DFC event.
7. No racist, sexist, anti-religious, political, sexist or homophobic statements will be tolerated by any NAAGA/DFC members whether online, social media and/or in person. Additionally, no verbal discussions or statements advocating any acts of violence toward police, military, and/or government officials will be allowed.
8. Violations of the CoC will be grounds for immediate termination of that member and/or entire Club (and no refund(s) will be granted).

KEY POINT: Chapters must agree to meet/have an activity once a month with the membership.

I _____ have read the above Code of Conduct and acknowledge that I will fully comply with the expected behavior. By signing this form, I absolve Downstate New York Diasporans Firearm Club (DNY-DFC) and NAAGA of all liability that could arise from and/or be associated with my perjury, negligence, or direct actions when engaged in any Club sanctioned activities and/or social media platforms. Particularly, any that might arise upon further revelations of my background that might come to light subject to further screening, if the Chapter would be required to use its resources to corroborate my attestation by conducting a comprehensive background check that will include criminal history.

DISCLAIMER:

Per the NAAGA HQ, any person who has a felony conviction or who has a misdemeanor conviction for domestic violence (and the conviction has not been pardoned or expunged AND rights to possess a firearm restored), is not eligible to become a member of NAAGA. Under federal law, that person is not legally allowed to possess a firearm and therefore is prohibited from joining NAAGA.
